ARTICLE I
SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Section 1. PLACE OF MEETINGS.

All meetings of the shareholders shall be held at the office of the corporation in the State of California, as may be designated for that purpose from time to time by the Board of Directors.

* Section 2. ANNUAL MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held on the 1st. day of June in each year, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the next succeeding business day, at the hour of 2 1/2 o'clock P.M., at which time the shareholders shall elect by plurality vote a Board of Directors, consider reports of the affairs of the Corporation, and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 3. SPECIAL MEETINGS.

Special meetings of the shareholders, for any purpose or purposes whatsoever, may be called at any time by the President, or by the Board of Directors, or by any two or more members thereof, or by one or more shareholders holding not less than one fifth (1/5) of the voting power of the corporation.

Section 4. NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

Notices of meetings, annual or special, shall be given in writing to shareholders entitled to vote by the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary, or if there be no such officer, or in case of his neglect or refusal, by any director or shareholder.

Such notices shall be sent to the shareholder's address appearing on the books of the corporation, or supplied by him to the corporation for the purpose of notice, not less than seven days before such meeting.

Notice of any meeting of shareholders shall specify the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and in case of special meeting, as provided by the Corporations Code of California, the general nature of the business to be transacted.

When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in case of an original meeting. Save, as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken.

Section 5. CONSENT TO SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS.

The transactions of any meeting of shareholders, however called and noticed, shall be valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, if a quorum be present either in person or by proxy, and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the shareholders entitled to vote, not present in person or by proxy, sign a written waiver of notice, or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof.

BY-LAW AMENDMENT

ARTICLE I, Section 2
Page 1

To read:

The Annual Meeting shall be held on the fourth Saturday of June. The time to be determined by the Board of Directors.

By-Law amendment adopted April 13, 1991 at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors.

All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting.

Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if authorized by a writing signed by all of the holders of shares who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose, and filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

Section 6. QUORUM.

The holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereat, present in person, or represented by proxy, shall be requisite and shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the shareholders for the transaction of business except as otherwise provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these By-Laws. If, however, such majority shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the shareholders, the shareholders entitled to vote thereat, present in person, or by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, until the requisite amount of voting shares shall be present. At such adjourned meeting at which the requisite amount of voting shares shall be represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

Section 7. VOTING RIGHTS; CUMULATIVE VOTING.

Only persons in whose names shares entitled to vote stand on the stock records of the corporation on the day of any meeting of shareholders, unless some other day be fixed by the Board of Directors for the determination of shareholders of record, then on such other day, shall be entitled to vote at such meeting.

Every shareholder entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote for each of said shares and shall have the right to accumulate his votes as provided in Section 2235 Corporations Code of California.

Section 8. PROXIES.

Every shareholder entitled to vote, or to execute consents, may do so, either in person or by written proxy, executed in accordance with the provisions of Section 2225 of the Corporations Code of California and filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

ARTICLE II DIRECTORS; MANAGEMENT

Section 1. POWERS.

Subject to the limitation of the Articles of Incorporation, of the By-Laws and of the Laws of the State of California as to actions to be authorized or approved by the shareholders, all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under authority of, and the business and affairs of this corporation shall be controlled by, a Board of Directors.

Section 2. NUMBER AND QUALIFICATION.

The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be ~~three~~ ^{three} (Amended) (three), until changed by amendment to the Articles of Incorporation or by an amendment to this Section 2, Article II of these By-Laws, adopted by the vote or written assent of the shareholders entitled to exercise the majority of the voting power of the corporation.

By-Law Amendment

Article II, Section 2

Page 2

By Resolution of the Board of Directors, March 15, 1964, it was voted to amend Section 2 of Article II to provide for the increase of the Authorized number of Directors of the corporation from 3 to 5.

The Resolution was ratified by the shareholders on September 6, 1964.

The Amendment

The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be five, until changed by amendment to the Articles of Incorporation or by an amendment to this Section 2, Article II of these By-Laws, adopted by vote or written assent of the shareholders entitled to exercise the majority of the voting power of the corporation.

By-Law Amendment
Article II, Section 3

Amendment, rotating Directors.

Directors shall serve for two consecutive years. Beginning September 4, 1966, three directors shall serve for an additional year. Two directors elected on September 4, 1966 shall serve for two consecutive years. At each annual meeting election shall be held to fill the seats of directors whose terms have expired.

Section 3. ELECTION AND TENURE OF OFFICE.

The directors shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the shareholders, to serve for one year and until their successors are elected and have qualified. Their term of office shall begin immediately after election.

Section 4. VACANCIES.

Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director, and each director so elected shall hold office until his successor is elected at an annual meeting of shareholders or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

The shareholders may at any time elect a director to fill any vacancy not filled by the directors, and may elect the additional directors at the meeting at which an amendment of the By-Laws is voted authorizing an increase in the number of directors.

A vacancy or vacancies shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any director, or if the shareholders shall increase the authorized number of directors but shall fail at the meeting at which such increase is authorized, or at an adjournment thereof, to elect the additional director so provided for, or in case the shareholders fail at any time to elect the full number of authorized directors.

If the Board of Directors accepts the resignation of a Director tendered to take effect at a future time, The Board, or the shareholders, shall have power to elect a successor to take office when the resignation shall become effective.

No reduction of the number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of his term of office.

Section 5. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS.

The entire Board of Directors or any individual director may be removed from office as provided by Sections 807, 810 and 811 of the Corporations Code of the State of California.

Section 6. PLACE OF MEETINGS.

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the office of the corporation in the State of California, as designated for that purpose, from time to time, by resolution of the Board of Directors or written consent of all of the Members of the Board. Any meeting shall be valid, wherever held, if held by the written consent of all Members of the Board of Directors, given either before or after the meeting and filed with the Secretary of the corporation.

Section 7. ORGANIZATION MEETINGS.

The organization meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately following the adjournment of the annual meetings of the shareholders.

NOTE * Section 8. OTHER REGULAR MEETINGS.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held on the first Saturday of May, August, November and February of each year, at 8 o'clock P.M.

If said day shall fall upon a holiday, such meetings shall be held on the next succeeding business day thereafter. No notice need be given of such regular meetings.

Section 9. SPECIAL MEETINGS--NOTICES.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes shall be called at any time by the President or if he is absent or unable or refuses to act, by any Vice-President or by any two directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meeting shall be delivered personally to the directors or sent to each director by letter or by telegram, charges prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it is shown upon the records of the corporation, or if it is not so shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. In case such notice is mailed or telegraphed, it shall be deposited in the United States mail or delivered to the telegraph company in the place in which the principal office of the corporation is located at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. In case such notice is delivered as above provided; it shall be so delivered at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time of the holding of the meeting. Such mailing, telegraphing or delivery as above provided shall be due, legal and personal notice to such director.

Section 10. WAIVER OF NOTICE.

When all the directors are present at any directors' meeting, however called or noticed, and sign a written consent thereto on the records of such meeting, or, if a majority of the directors are present, and if those not present sign in writing a waiver of notice of such meeting, whether prior to or after the holding of such meeting, which said waiver shall be filed with the Secretary of the corporation, the transactions thereof are as valid as if had at a meeting regularly called and noticed.

Section 11. ACTION BY DIRECTORS WITHOUT A MEETING.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under the By-Laws or Articles may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the Minutes of the proceedings of the board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of such Directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of this division which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting.

Section 12. NOTICE OF ADJOURNMENT.

Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned.

Section 13. QUORUM.

A majority of the number of directors as fixed by the articles or By-Laws shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the action of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum, when duly assembled, is valid as a corporate act; provided that a minority of the directors, in the absence of a quorum, may adjourn from time to time, but may not transact any business.

Added to the By-Law the following:

"Notice of special meetings of the Board of Directors, or a change of the date or time of a regular meeting, may be given by telephone communication at least 24 hours prior to said meeting unless a written Waiver of Consent signed by all members of the Board of Directors is filed with the corporate minutes."

Adopted by the Board of Directors
May 19, 1984

ARTICLE III OFFICERS

Section 1. OFFICERS

The officers shall be a President, one or more Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, which officers shall be elected by, and hold office at the pleasure of, the Board of Directors.

Section 2. ELECTION.

After their election the directors shall meet and organize by electing a President from their own number, and one or more Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer, who may, but need not be, members of the Board of Directors. Any two or more of such offices except those of President and Secretary, may be held by the same person.

Section 3. COMPENSATION AND TENURE OF OFFICE.

The compensation and tenure of office of all the officers of the corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION.

Any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by a majority of the directors at the time in office, at any regular or special meeting of the Board, or, except in case of an officer chosen by the Board of Directors, by any officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the Board of Directors.

Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the President, or to the Secretary of the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein; and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. VACANCIES.

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in the By-Laws for regular appointments to such office.

Section 6. PRESIDENT.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation and shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, have general supervision, direction and control of the business and affairs of the corporation. He shall preside at all meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors. He shall be ex-officio a member of all the standing committees, including the executive committee, if any, and shall have the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of President of a corporation, and shall have such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the By-Laws.

Section 7. VICE-PRESIDENTS.

The Vice-Presidents shall, in the order designated by the Board of Directors, in the absence or disability of the President, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President, and shall perform such other duties as the Board of Directors shall prescribe.

Section 8. SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, a book of minutes at the principal office or such other place as the Board of Directors may order, of all meetings of directors and shareholders, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and if special, how authorized, the notice thereof given, the names of those present at directors' meetings, the number of shares present or represented at shareholders' meetings and the proceedings thereof.

The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal office or at the office of the corporation's transfer agent, a share register, or a duplicate share register, showing the names of the shareholders and their addresses; the number and classes of shares held by each; the number and date of certificates issued for the same, and the number and date of cancellation of every certificate surrendered for cancellation.

The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all the meetings of the shareholders and of the Board of Directors required by the By-Laws or by law to be given; he shall keep the seal of the corporation and affix said seal to all documents requiring a seal, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the By-Laws.

Section 9. TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall receive and keep all the funds of the corporation, and pay them out only on the check of the corporation, signed in the manner authorized by the Board of Directors.

Section 10. ASSISTANTS.

Any Assistant Secretary or Assistant Treasurer, respectively, may exercise any of the powers of Secretary or Treasurer, respectively, as provided in these By-Laws or as directed by the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as are imposed upon them by the By-Laws or the Board of Directors.

Section 11. SUBORDINATE OFFICERS.

The Board of Directors may from time to time appoint such subordinate officers or agents as the business of the corporation may require, fix their tenure of office and allow them suitable compensation.

ARTICLE IV EXECUTIVE AND OTHER COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors may appoint an executive committee, and such other committees as may be necessary from time to time, consisting of such number of its members and with such powers as it may designate, consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws and the General Corporation Laws of the State of California. Such committees shall hold office at the pleasure of the board.

ARTICLE V CORPORATE RECORDS AND REPORTS--INSPECTION

Section 1. RECORDS.

The corporation shall maintain adequate and correct accounts, books and records of its business and properties. All of such books, records and accounts shall be kept at its principal place of business in the State of California, as fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

Section 2. INSPECTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS.

All books and records provided for in Sections 3003 and 3004 of the Corporations Code of California shall be open to inspection of the directors and shareholders from time to time and in the manner provided in said Sections 3003 and 3004.

Section 3. CERTIFICATION AND INSPECTION OF BY-LAWS.

The original or a copy of these By-Laws, as amended or otherwise altered to date, certified by the Secretary, shall be open to inspection by the shareholders of the company, as provided in Section 502 of the Corporations Code of California.

Section 4. CHECKS, DRAFTS, ETC.

All checks, drafts or other orders for payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, issued in the name of or payable to the corporation, shall be signed or endorsed by such person or persons and in such manner as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. CONTRACTS, ETC. --HOW EXECUTED.

The Board of Directors, except as in the By-Laws otherwise provided, may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement, or to pledge its credit, or to render it liable for any purpose or to any amount.

Section 6. ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Directors shall cause to be sent to the shareholders, not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of the fiscal or calendar year, a balance sheet as of the closing date of such year, together with a statement of income and profit and loss for such year. These financial statements shall be certified to by the President, Secretary, Treasurer or a public accountant.

ARTICLE VI CERTIFICATES AND TRANSFER OF SHARES

Section 1. CERTIFICATES FOR SHARES.

Certificates for shares shall be of such form and device as the Board of Directors may designate and shall state the name of the record holder of the shares represented thereby; its number; date of issuance; the number of shares for which it is issued; the par value, if any, or a statement that such shares are without par value; a statement of the rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions, if any; a statement as to the redemption or conversion, if any; a statement of liens or restrictions upon transfer or voting, if any; if the shares be assessable, or, if assessments are collectible by personal action, a plain statement of such facts.

Every certificate for shares must be signed by the President or a Vice-

Authority is expressly conferred upon the corporation to levy assessments upon and against all the shares issued by the corporation; and the Board of Directors shall have power, by majority vote of its members, to levy assessments upon all the issued shares of the corporation at such times and from time to time and in such amounts as shall to them appear necessary or expedient; (provided that the assessment levied at any particular time shall be for the same amount against each share then issued and outstanding); and each assessment shall be a lien on the shares assessed from the time of adoption of the resolution levying such assessment until paid, and each stockholder shall be personally liable to the corporation for the amount of each assessment levied against the shares, standing upon the books of the corporation in the name of such stockholder at the time of the adoption of the resolution levying such assessment which amount may be recovered from the stockholder by suit of personal action.

In the event of non-payment of any assessment, the corporation may, at its option, either (1) sell or forfeit the shares against which the assessment was levied in the manner now or hereafter provided by the By-Laws of the corporation; or (2) by majority vote of the Board of Directors, collect the assessment by personal action and suit against the stockholder personally liable therefor; or the corporation may elect to pursue any combination of the above said remedies, or any other remedy provided for by law.

RESOLUTION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS

(Meeting held November 30, 1964)

"That all shareholders shall be billed by January 30th of each year, that if the assessment is not paid by April 15th, the assessment shall be delinquent and bear a delinquency penalty of 6%. If not paid by January 30th of the following year the share shall be sold at public auction. Final notice of sale to be sent by registered mail not later than fifteen days prior to sale."

AMENDMENT TO THE BY-LAWS

Article VI

The following amendment was made:

We wish to amend the by-laws and have a new resolution to supersede the resolution of the Board of Directors meeting held on November 30, 1964. The new resolution shall be that shareholders shall be billed by January 30th each year. One-half the assessment is due upon receipt of the bill and the second half is due by July 1st of that year. If the first half of the assessment is not paid by March 15th, then it shall be assessed a 10% penalty; and if the second half is not paid by August 15th, then it shall be assessed a 10% penalty. If the assessment, including any penalties, is not paid in full by January 30th of the year following the date of billing, it becomes delinquent and may be sold as per Article VI of the Articles of Incorporation.

A share in the Cascadel Mutual Water Co. entitles the lot owner to supply one single family dwelling, located on the lot to which the share was issued, with water. Sub-divisions in which a guest house is permitted in addition to the main residence may use one share of water to serve both dwellings. The water pipe furnished to each lot shall be no larger or smaller than a 3/4" pipe and shall feed no more than two 3/4 in. pipes, each pipe feeding a separate lot.

adopted 11/2/72

President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary or must be authenticated by facsimiles of the signature of the President and Secretary or by a facsimile of the signature of its President and the written signature of its Secretary or an Assistant Secretary. Before it becomes effective every certificate for shares authenticated by a facsimile of a signature must be countersigned by a transfer agent or transfer clerk and must be registered by an incorporated bank or trust company, either domestic or foreign, as registrar of transfers.

Section 2. TRANSFER ON THE BOOKS.

Upon surrender to the Secretary or transfer agent of the corporation of a certificate for shares duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer, it shall be the duty of the corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction upon its books.

Section 3. LOST OR DESTROYED CERTIFICATES.

Any person claiming a certificate of stock to be lost or destroyed shall make an affidavit or affirmation of that fact and advertise the same in such manner as the Board of Directors may require, and shall if the directors so require give the corporation a bond of indemnity, in form and with one or more sureties satisfactory to the Board, in at least double the value of the stock represented by said certificate, whereupon a new certificate may be issued of the same tenor and for the same number of shares as the one alleged to be lost or destroyed.

Section 4. TRANSFER AGENTS AND REGISTRARS.

The Board of Directors may appoint one or more transfer agents or transfer clerks, and one or more registrars, which shall be an incorporated bank or trust company--either domestic or foreign, who shall be appointed at such times and places as the requirements of the corporation may necessitate and the Board of Directors may designate.

Section 5. CLOSING STOCK TRANSFER BOOKS.

The Board of Directors may close the transfer books in their discretion for a period not exceeding thirty days preceding any meeting, annual or special, of the shareholders, or the day appointed for the payment of a dividend.

ARTICLE VII CORPORATE SEAL

The corporate seal shall be circular in form, and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation, the date of its incorporation, and the word California.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

Section 1. BY SHAREHOLDERS.

New By-Laws may be adopted or these By-Laws may be repealed or amended at their annual meeting, or at any other meeting of the shareholders called for that purpose, by a vote of shareholders entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power of the corporation, or by written assent of such shareholders.

Section 2. POWERS OF DIRECTORS.

Subject to the right of the shareholders to adopt, amend or repeal By-Laws, as provided in Section 1 of this Article VIII, the Board of Directors may adopt, amend or repeal any of these By-Laws other than a By-Law or amendment thereof charging the authorized number of directors.

Section 3. RECORD OF AMENDMENTS.

Whenever an amendment or new By-Law is adopted, it shall be copied in the Book of By-Laws with the original By-Laws, in the appropriate place. If any By-Law is repealed, the fact of repeal with the date of the meeting at which the repeal was enacted or written assent was filed shall be stated in said book.
